SUFFERINGS OF CHRISTIANS IN TURKEY

Washington, Dec. 19.—Colorful stories of the privations and persecutions suffered by Christians in Turkey were told before the house immigration committee today in support of the bill proposing to admit certain classes of Near East refugees into the United States.

One of those who testified was Eliza Shakhinian, herself a refugee whose flight was stopped at Ellis Island. Released on bond by the immigration authorities she came to Washington and, between sobs, related how she had been carried into captivity by the Turks, how her near relatives all had been killed one by one, and how she had made her way to America, only to find the door closed in her face.

George Horton, who was American consul at Smyrna during the recent Greco-Turkish hostilities in that region, corroborated many of the assertions made by other witnesses regarding the tribulations of the Christian minorities in Turkey. He said he was speaking wholly for himself and not as a representative of the state department but could not refrain from saying a word

HELP FOR BURGULARIZING DOZEN HOMES IN ANSONIA

Ansonia, Dec. 19.—Julius Wolf, who is alleged to have burglarized nearly a dozen homes within the past year, was held in the city court this morning for the superior court, New Haven. The case of Isadore Cennatis, an alleged confederate of Wolf, was continued. Hundreds of dollars worth of jewelry, clothing and other things which the police found in a search of Wolf's home, were exhibited in court.

Five saloonkeepers who were arrested by the state police last Friday evening pleaded guilty in the city court today to charges of violation of the state prohibition laws and were each fined $25 and costs. The cases of two others were continued.

DUKE'S DESCENDANT CHARGED WITH DISORDERLY CONDUCT

New York, Dec. 19.—(By the A. P.)—A little more than a century ago, Joseph Duane, Duke of Orleans, Napoleon Bonaparte's dashing minister of police, had a descendant of Paris scurrying in hot pursuit of plotters against the throne.

Today, Eugene Fouche, who claims to be a lineal descendant and heir to the dukedom, had the tables rudely turned. He was "run in" by a member of the Brooklyn gendarmes, and landed in a dingy police court on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The duke's presumptive was paroled by Magistrate Eluperin until next Friday, when other gendarmes will report on their investigation of his story that Mrs. Helen Westway sadly misinterpreted him when she thought that he was trying to insult her in a Brooklyn restaurant.

It seems according to M. Fouche's story, that he had become enraged at a restaurant and had loosed a flow of language that shocked Mrs. Westway. Even though she could not understand his intricacies of "cochons," "sacres" and "hommes d'unchein."

But M. Fouche could not have spoken that way to a lady—never! Indeed, he wouldn't have spoken that way in the presence of a lady, but for the misfortune that his indignation rendered him blind to her charming presence.

Mrs. Westway insists, although she can't imagine why he did it, that M. Fouche aimed his remarks and his wild gesticulations directly at her.

The duke's presumptive is modest about his title, which he says the family hasn't used for 70 years. He mentioned it merely to back up his claim of breeding that precludes the possibility of his having addressed insulting remarks to a woman.

RECOUNT OF VOTE ASKED IN 17TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT

Ansonia, Dec. 19.—A recount of the votes cast for senator in the 17th senatorial district was asked by Senator Frederick M. Drew of Ansonia, who was defeated for re-election by Walter P. Johnson, at the November election, by 18 votes. Papers in the precincts were served upon Mr. Johnson last yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff William M. Shea of Derby, and a return made to the secretary of state who has already, it is said, issued a certificate of election to the democratic candidate for senator, who is elected, on the face of the returns, by a majority of 18, in a total vote cast in the district of 11,559.

Drew had a majority in the district outside of Derby, of 888. Derby upset this by giving a majority for Johnson of 993. There are seven towns in this district, Ansonia, Derby, Seymour, Oxford, Beacon Falls, Middlebury and Southbury. Johnson's majority was first given as 30, the corrected count and the discovery of an error of eleven votes in the third ward, which had not been credited to Drew, reducing the Johnson majority to 18.

PORTLAND BANK ROBBER SENTENCED BY JUDGE WEBB

Middletown, Dec. 19.—William Trestry who was one of the gang which entered the bank at Portland in August, 1920, he'd up those in the room with $12,500, was sent to state prison for not less than five nor more than ten years, by Judge James H. Webb, in superior court today. Trestry pleaded guilty. He was arrested on December 9 as soon as he had been released on parole from Sing Sing where he was under a three year sentence for theft. State policemen brought him to Portland and he was arraigned for trial. Trestry served a four year sentence in Sing Sing from 1915 to 1917, for forgery.

Three others connected with the robbery of the bank in Portland are in state prison, and the driver of the automobile used in the get-away, was released from jail about a year ago after serving a short sentence.

MISSING MANICURIST WAS FOUND DEAD IN BED

New Haven, Dec. 19.—Mrs. Corinne E. Jensen, a manicurist who is said to have had a large clientele, missing since last Wednesday was found dead in her home in Ellsworth avenue, last yesterday. The opinion of the medical examiner given today was that she had killed herself by inhaling illuminating gas. Three burners in a kitchen gas stove had been left open.

Mrs. Jensen had parlors in Temple street and employed two assistants. She left no letter or evidence to explain her act, but the police in looking among her effects found many unpaid bills and the opinion is held by them that Mrs. Jensen was despondent in spite of what apparently was a well paying business enterprise. The woman was separated from her husband, but a brother whose name is Borg, lives in Springfield.

NEW HAVEN ROAD NOT TO ASSIST GERMAN EMPLOYEES

New Haven, Dec. 19.—No assistance in their defense will be given by the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad to the three Germans taken into custody by immigration inspectors yesterday, the company announced today in a statement.

The men had been working in the railroad shops at East Hartford and striking shodmen on the system had declared, at meetings, that these men had got into the country in violation of the immigration laws.

The company in its statement says, after repeating a previous statement declaring of compliance with national and state laws regarding employment of labor: The company's position was not changed. It does not feel called upon to undertake the defense of any employee for violation of law not incurred in the performance of duty as employee.

If these mechanics have violated the immigration laws they are in no different position from any employee who has violated any other law of the state or nation—for instance, the company would hardly be expected to defend one of its employees for overspeeding in an automobile. The only occasion when the company has undertaken the defense of its employees is where the alleged violation has been performed in the course of their duty and the management has been convinced of the probability of their innocence.

The three Germans give the names of Fritz Unger, George Zaxova and Juhanis Richter and were taken to the Hartford police station by inspectors Hurley and Clark who had been sent to get them from Providence.

Men Taken to Boston

Hartford, December 19.—The three alleged German workers, Fritz Unger, George Zaxova and Juhanis Richter, arrested by federal agents at the East Hartford shore of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad Monday night as imported laborers, were taken to Boston today. There they will, it is said, be given a hearing before a United States immigration inspector. It is alleged they were brought into the country in violation of the alien contract law.

POLICE OFFICER IN RYE WAS SHOT IN THE JAW

Greenwich, Dec. 19.—George Olson, a police officer of Rye, N. Y., met two men on the street there early today and asked them where they were going. One drew a gun and fired. The officer got a bullet in the jaw. He went to the United hospital at Portchester. Later, Tony Tulisco of this town was arrested on suspicion of being one of the town men.
